

CALL FOR PAPERS
“The State of Women”
Russell Sage College
21-22 April 2022.

Papers should address women leadership and gender parity in the United States and/or Europe in one or several of the following areas: parliaments, governments, courts, military, diplomacy, academia, business, religion, media, and sports. We are particularly looking for proposals having an EU/US comparative approach.

Young scholars, PhD candidates, and graduate students are particularly welcomed to apply. Please send an abstract to Prof. Federiga Bindi at Bindif@sage.edu. In the proposal (one page max) please indicate your institutional affiliation and contacts, and in which panel your proposal is addressed to (Women in: parliaments, governments, courts, military, diplomacy, academia, business, religion, media, and sports).

Travel and lodging expenses will be covered by the organizers thanks to an EU ERASMUS+ grant. The papers will also be considered for publication in a forthcoming volume to be published by Brookings Press.
